

CNPS Policy for Hot Desert Grazing

Adopted March 2, 2002

In the hot California deserts (Mojave and Colorado), CNPS opposes the grazing of domestic and feral animals except where compelling scientific evidence shows that such grazing is compatible with sustaining native plant communities and rare native plants.